ACCIDENTALLY SHOT AND DIES

Harrah, Okla., Jan. 18.—The funeral of Charles Scott, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Scott, who recently moved here to Holdenville, was held here Saturday. The young man was accidentally shot and killed at Mutual, Okla. The boy was employed by a farmer and in the house at the time of the accident. A neighbor came to borrow a shotgun. As the weapon was handed over, it was accidentally discharged, the ball striking young Scott in the body as he was sitting in the house. He died almost immediately.

Tax Examiners at Work.

Guthrie, Okla., Jan. 18.—State Examiner Taylor today announced the names of 20 men who will investigate tax levies in the state at the suggestion of Governor Haskell. The work was begun today all over the state. It will be completed, it is expected, within 30 days. The agents will receive $150 for the month. From one to four counties were assigned each.

THE CONTRACT LET

Street paving is an assured fact in Ada.

The contract was let Monday night for paving Twelfth street, between Rennie on the east and Stockton on the west.

The Metropolitan Engineering and Construction Company of Kansas City, were the successful bidders at $1.70 per square yard, which with trimming will amount to about $2.00 per yard.

The next lowest bidder was the Sharpe-Meyer Construction Company whose bid was $1.83 1-2.

The work is to be started upon notice by council and completed within ninety days. This notice will not be given until the city puts in the sewerage system on Twelfth street, provided for in the recent bond issue.

It is gratifying news, however, that a definite start has been made to pave the business streets of Ada.

The paving will be 5 1-2 inches of concrete composed of crushed stone or rock, cement and sand, with a top layer of cement 1 1-2 inches thick. This is said to make a most durable paving.

Another good thing about it, is the fact that all the material is at our door and of the best quality. The Oklahoma Portland Cement Company's plant will supply the cement and that is a sufficient guarantee of the unexcelled quality.

The rock, stone and sand, are all convenient and in abundance within easy reach, so the expenditure for labor necessary to get the material for paving the streets of Ada is kept at home.

BITTER ATTACK ON PRESIDENT

Washington, Jan. 18.—A sensational and bitter attack on President Roosevelt was made in the house of representatives by Mr. Willett of New York. His remarks, which were delivered under the license of general debate on the pension appropriation bill, were cut short by a vote of the house that it would hear no more of them. The president was characterized as a "Gargoyle, tyrant, pigmy descendant of Dutch tradespeople, Hay tedder, fountain of billingsgate, a jocular, imitation of a king, and a bogus hero." As it was, Mr. Willett had completed reading about three-fourths of his speech, when after repeated appeals to the chair by numerous republicans that he be called to order, he was compelled to take his seat. It was on less than $150 a year, who has been a resident of the state for seven years, and the Cordell bill covering the procedure in regard to wills, providing that a husband may not will more than two-thirds of his property away from his wife nor a wife from her husband.

Senator Cunningham caused the senate to take notice by declaring that he had been told by a member of the supreme court that all efforts to amend those statutes would only add to the complications now existing as many sections of law which had not been repealed or amended had been left out of that compilation, and that inasmuch as the general revision of the code has to be made under the constitution before the meeting of the next legislature any reference to the statutes of 1908 in amendatory bills would only complicate the work of the codifying commission.

PISTOL BATTLE ON A TRAIN

Fort Smith, Ark., Jan. 18.—Entering a car in an Iron Mountain passenger train at Cherokee Junction, six miles from this city, in which his brother, Grant Quinn sat handcuffed to Police Officer Burgess of this city who was taking him to Little Rock to turn him over to the commandant at Fort Logan H. Root as a deserter, Lee Quinn last night about midnight opened a fusillade with a pistol at Burgess. Burgess pulled his pistol and began firing at Quinn. Passengers assisted him, two of them also firing several shots and another finally knocking Quinn's gun upward so that one of the bullets went through the roof of the car. Burgess was not injured, but Irvine Brassfield of Mulberry, Ark., who was sitting just behind Burgess and his prisoner, received a fatal wound. He was shot twice, one bullet penetrating his lung and the other entering his leg. Brassfield was brought to this city and is being cared for at the Iron Mountain emergency hospital.

Quinn, after emptying his pistol, leaped from the train and has not been captured, although it is believed he was wounded. He boarded the train as it slowed down at Cherokee Junction, and on entering the smoking car where Burgess and his brother were, opened fire.

Grant Quinn, who was arrested here yesterday, was turned over to the officers at Fort Root today.

RETURNS A DEMENTED TRAMP

Hollis, Okla., Jan. 18.—In a horrible physical condition, apparently insane and unable to care for himself and having been given up for dead, Miles Edward, well known and respected, suddenly appeared as a tramp at the home of John Scott and asked for something to eat. Not until he had been seated at a table was he recognized, his appearance such as to absolutely change his identity.

No rational expression as to his whereabouts could be gained other than that he had slept in barns. He disappeared about a month ago, and all efforts to find him failing he was given up for dead, and his wife returned to her parents in Missouri. His feet were torn and bleeding, hair and beard long and tangled.

The strangest thing of all is that somehow he learned to speak Spanish, a language he knew nothing about before he disappeared. He will be cared for and probably taken to an asylum.

Bad Fire at Keifer.

Tulsa, Okla., Jan. 18.—A fire which started from an unknown cause in the little oil town of Keifer, 18 miles south of Tulsa, shortly after midnight last night, totally destroyed two large business blocks, gutted a third and consumed three stocks of goods, threatened the entire city for a while and paralyzed business for a time. The fire is evidently the work of an incendiary, and the fact that Keifer has no fire department added to the horror of the disaster. The total loss is $12,000.

Only the cheap brand of talk is cheap.

LOOTED BANK AND LAUGHED

Enid, Okla., Jan. 18.—Laughing hilariously while they scraped together the bills and coin scattered by the force of their explosive three masked men looted the first state bank of Carrier, Ok., this morning securing $3,000 all in cash. They left one fifty-cent piece in the bank.

Two charges of nitro-glycerine were exploded. The safe was completely demolished. Portions of the steel vault were blown a great distance. One large mis-shapen chunk struck the postoffice a block away and crashed into the wood siding.

When the first shot was fired under the bank vault at 2 o'clock Carrier's 150 inhabitants awoke, and, to the child, swarmed from their homes.

"It's the bank," some one shouted. And toward the bank the scantily clothed inhabitants converged. Then, suddenly, those in front halted. They wavered and scattered before the muzzle of several revolvers thrust from the bank windows and threats that came from behind the guns. The whole town was held at bay while the robbers worked at their leisure.

At 2:10 the second shot was fired. This wrecked the safe. People ran to shelter to escape the flying pieces of steel and wood as the bank vault was lifted almost bodily through the little building.

The yegmen took their time in plundering the dismantled bank. They whistled and conversed as they searched the ruins of the safe and floor of the building for money, which they dumped into a bag. When they left the bank they were apparently uproariously amused at the dark, silent houses. They walked together slowly and unconcernedly, disappearing into the night.

The sheriff left Enid this morning to gather a posse. It is believed that the men had horses secreted near Carrier.

ARRESTED; ROOM SEARCHED

Guthrie, Okla., Jan. 18.—Scott McReynolds of Brooklyn, N. Y., in the employ of Clarence J. Shearn of 149 Nassau street, New York, general counsel for William Randolph Hearst, who has been in Oklahoma for several months gathering data for use in the libel suit of Gov. C. N. Haskell against Hearst for $600,000, was arrested tonight upon a charge of conspiracy. A warrant had been issued in the County court upon affidavit of

Gov. Haskell, alleging that McReynolds had conspired with "John Doe" and others, offering a sum of money to commit acts defamatory of the complainant. There was also issued a search warrant upon application of the Governor, and McReynolds' apartments in the Ione Hotel were relieved of documents, chiefly consisting, it is said, of carbon copies of matter he had forwarded to the New York office. The papers were taken to Gov. Haskell's private office, but later McReynolds and his attorney, former Chief Justice Burford, appeared in court and an order was made returning them to the custody of the court. Gov. Haskell was represented by County Attorney Hepburn and O. T. Smith, law clerk in the executive office. McReynolds was released to remain in the custody of his attorney until the case is called for trial tomorrow.

Gov. Haskell issued a statement tonight in which he reviewed the charges set out in the complaint, adding that McReynolds in his research has been aided by one or two men from the East, by a certain person in Ohio, whom he does not name, and three or four persons in Oklahoma.

McReynolds made a statement tonight, that Gov. Haskell's purpose in causing his arrest and the seizure of his room was to obtain possession of data he had, to ascertain its importance and to learn from whom it was obtained.

The suit for use, in which McReynolds was seeking evidence, was filed by Gov. Haskell against Hearst in Omaha, Neb., during the national campaign, and was based upon publications made by the New Yorker in regard to Gov. Haskell's retirement as National Democratic treasurer, as well as his connection with the campaign. McReynolds is an ex-newspaper man, formerly working on the Times of El Paso, Tex.

MASS MEETING AND PRAYER

Oklahoma City, Jan. 18.—While members of Oklahoma's legislature are gathered in hotel lobbies and committee rooms Wednesday night to discuss action to be taken on bills on the following day, hundreds of Oklahoma City church going people will be on their knees in the White Temple Baptist church, praying that the divine hand may guide the actions of those who have been trusted by the people to spread upon the statute books such laws as will be for the health, the happiness and the prosperity of the whole people.

A great mass meeting will be held in White Temple Wednesday evening, under the auspices of the ministerial association, the law and order league and the anti-saloon league.

Before the meeting proper begins, the women in attendance at the meeting will go to the ladies' parlor of the church the men will assemble in Garrison hall and from these two rooms prayers will be offered that God may not permit the sale of liquor to be legalized in Oklahoma.

At 8 o'clock, the prayer service will be adjourned and in the assembly room of the church the Rev. Dr. P. A. Baker, general superintendent of the anti-saloon league, who travels 60,000 miles each year in the cause of temperance, will make an address.

This will be preparatory to the annual state convention of the anti-saloon league, which will be held in Guthrie on Thursday. A union meeting is in progress there, but it will give way to the convention. Dr. Baker and Governor Haskell will address the convention.

Oklahoma City will send a big delegation to the meeting. Fifteen trustees are to be elected and plans for the year's work will be discussed.

Election of U. S. Senator.

Guthrie, Okla., Jan. 18.—Tomorrow the two houses of the Oklahoma legislature, in separate sessions, will elect a United States senator. He will, of course, be Senator Thomas P. Gore.

Wednesday at high noon will be held the joint session at which the formal election and announcement will take place. The voting tomorrow really does the electing, but Wednesday completes the formality. Lieutenant Governor Bellamy presides over the joint session Wednesday with Speaker Wilson occupying a chair of equal dignity and elevation.

Guthrie, Okla., Jan. 18.—Senator Thomas P. Gore arrived tonight to be present tomorrow at the balloting for United States senator.

WE ARE FRIENDS.

Pontotoc county has right around thirty thousand inhabitants, of whom five thousand live in Ada. Practically, there is an unanimous, healthful enthusiasm throughout the county, away from Ada, in favor of the successful consummation of the great ambition of all the people living within the Ada city, that of securing through proper legislative enactment, a state normal.

Since careful scrutiny has been had of the organization of the legislature and the personnel of its leadership, and since, it is known that the state administration, especially its head, will on no account stack any chunks in the way of Ada's normal undertaking, there has been aroused among those few who were more or less dormant in their support of the state administration a spirit of confidence and appreciation toward the leading official state factors. And in reference to those citizens who have lately taken on positive confidence and changed their attitude, it should not be understood that such was brought about simply on account of the administration's non-partisan, if not favorable attitude toward the city of Ada, in the matter of the location of public building. Though, however, it might be true, that among these, the awakening in general support of the policy of the administration was produced in such salutary manner on account of the great relief afforded in finding out that Haskell really did not have it in for this city and county after all.

Notwithstanding, Ada's superior inducements, through geographical location, center of southeast population, railroad facilities, modern improvements, high altitude, pure climate and water and the inexhaustible possession of the finest building materials, it is recognized, that friendship counts and our friendship stands pledged.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

Washington, Jan. 18.—It appears that a new national issue has been developed in Washington during the past ten days. The republican leaders headed by Representative Burton, and Speaker Cannon, are opposing a large appropriation for the improvement of rivers and harbors this year. The democrats demand such a bill, and threaten if it is not passed, to carry the fight through both houses of congress and, if they lose, then to make the river and harbor improvements question an issue in the next congressional election, and on it to try to wrest the control of the house from the republicans. The republican policy is to drain the country's revenue for more battleships and a larger army. That of the democrats is to spend the country's money on the permanent improvement of internal facilities. Many republicans believe with the democrats on this question.

TEXAS WINS ITS OIL CASE

Washington, D. C. Jan. 18.—The State of Texas has triumphed over the Waters-Pierce Oil Company. The supreme court today, in opinions in which all its members concur, has not only affirmed the judgment of ouster, together with the great penalty imposed, but has decreed that the property shall be surrendered to Robert J. Eckhardt, the State receiver, as a means of banishing the company from Texas. Thus, not only is the constitutionality of State's anti-trust laws affirmed, but the judgment of its courts is sustained.

Justice Day delivered the opinion. As if to make a completed victory more complete, the court has adjudged that the cost of the proceedings instituted by Bradley W. Palmer and H. Clay Pierce to keep the federal receiver, C. B. Dorchester, in control, after the circuit court of appeals at New Orleans had decided against him, shall be paid out of the proceeds of the company's property in Texas.

There is no flaw in the victory.

UNIVERSITY TEACHERS WIN.

Contract Required Notice of Ninety Days.

Guthrie, Okla., Jan. 18.—That a professor of the state university is entitled to 90 days' notice or 90 days' pay on dismissal or failure to re-hire is the opinion of Attorney General West in a letter to the state board of regents of the state university today.

The attorney general was made the arbitrator between the board of regents and the teachers of the university in the case of V. L. Parrington, professor of English, who was re-appointed June 24, 1908, though notified June 9, 1908, that he had been appointed.

The ruling is based on a provision

BLIND SCHOOL AT MUSKOGEE

Guthrie, Ok., Jan. 18.—Superintendent Cameron today addressed a letter to Senator Russell of Muskogee county and Chairman Branson of the democratic steering committee, recommending the removal of the state school for the blind from Fort Gibson to Muskogee.

This is the result of Muskogee's failure to secure one of the A. & M. schools or the normal school that is to be located in the eastern part of the state.

The school for the blind when fully reorganized in Muskogee will have 200 pupils.

Tablequah will in all probability get the normal school.

ZEKE PUTNAM'S FUNERAL

This evening at 1:30, the funeral services of Zeke Putnam were held at the residence of W. E. Hall, brother-in-law of the deceased, conducted by Revs. Wilson and Barnhardt of the Methodist church.

The Odd Fellows then took charge of the remains and conducted the last sad rites at Rosedale cemetery, in this city.

There were a large number of friends and acquaintances at the funeral services and burial.

The assassination of Marshal Zeke Putnam, of Allen, as reported in the News yesterday, contained some errors, as it was impossible to get correct information by phone.

Marshal Putnam was in a store at the time he was killed, and was standing by a man who was sitting down by the counter eating a canned lunch.

As the bullets from the shotgun struck Marshal Putnam, he grabbed for his pistol, but the wounds were so instantaneously fatal, that he did not live long enough to pull his weapon, but fell over dead. Two shot entered his temple, one in the top of his head, one in his arm and two in his breast.

Sheriff Smith and Prosecuting Attorney Wimbish returned from Allen last night. They do not have anything to report for publication.

There was considerable suppressed excitement at Allen apparent as had been the case since the assassination.

Bloodhounds from Muskogee, McAlester and Vinita, were carried to Allen, but they could not get any definite trail of the assassin.

Deputy Sheriff Bob Nestor tracked two horses from the scene of the crime going south, and there may be some developments later from the information gained by the clues gathered.

JUDGE GALBRAITH HONORED

At the meeting of attorneys at Muskogee, representing the various people who have been sued by the government to quiet the titles to Indian lands which they have brought, Judge C. A. Galbraith of Ada, was selected as one of those to present to the court the cases in the Choctaw and Chickasaw nations.

There has been an agreement reached between the government and defendants by which test cases, involving all the law points at issue, may be argued and submitted to the federal court at Muskogee, and whichever way a decision is made, an appeal will be taken to the U. S. supreme court, so as these disputed points can be finally and definitely settled and the lands freed of clouded titles.

To be selected as one of the attorneys in a case of such importance to present the matter to the court, is a high honor, and one which Judge Galbraith is most worthy.

Miss Mollie Jernigan is again at her desk in the News office after a month's visit with relatives and friends at the old Kentucky home.

There is not any rush at the county treasurer's office since extension of tax paying and Treasurer Cate, Deputy Westbrook and Assistant Personal Sugg, have a chance to take a long breath. They have handled the rush expeditiously and efficiently.

Up to date the balance shows $43,922.64, as the amount of taxes collected.

ADA ASPHALT IS THE BEST

The verdict of Fort Worth, Tex., contractors was to the effect that the Ada asphalt proved the best they had ever used, and this is confirmed by a competitive test recently made at Muskogee which gives additional evidence to this effect.

In conversation with one of the largest paving contractors in Muskogee, a News reporter was informed by him, that he had a test made of the different samples of asphalt gathered in Oklahoma, and he found the Ada asphalt the best, so had arranged to have 25,000 tons of it mined for him to use in his paving contracts in the state.

As further evidence that this contractor knows good material with which to do his paving work, he said the cement manufactured by the Oklahoma Portland Cement Company at Ada, was a high grade article, and that he had just received a statement from them to the amount of $3200 worth of cement.

Ada is rapidly forging to the front, and no one thing is doing more to place it there than its cement plant.

And now our asphalt is everywhere taking the highest rank. With such rich natural resources that are so generally used, the fame of Ada will spread wherever high grade paving and building materials, such as cement and asphalt, are used.

Miss Scales.

Miss Annie Scales, of Paris, Tex., most favorably remembered in Ada as one of the teachers in the public schools two years ago, delighted her friends with a little visit in Ada, while en route from her late residence in Oklahoma City, with her relative, Major Scales, to the home of her parents at Paris.

Miss Scales taught in the Oklahoma City schools last year until she resigned to accept the position of librarian in Northwestern State Normal.

Kidney Pills at G. M. Ramsey's drug store and through their use received a cure from a severe case of kidney complaint. There was a dull ache through my loins and the too-frequent passage of the kidney secretions caused me great annoyance. I tried a number of remedies, but received only temporary relief until I used Doan's Kidney Pills. I have had no occasion to resort to a kidney remedy since as the cure Doan's Kidney Pills effected has proven to be a permanent one.

A SERMON.

Next to the vastness of this army of the Church of God I am impressed with the banners which are fluttering over it. You know that what the military uniform is to the soldier as an individual, the flag or banner is to the army as a whole. It is the sign by which the soldiers of one nation are distinguished from the soldiers of another nation. Because our own beloved American flag represents so much, you always find it the most honored emblem in the camp or the field. I was never more impressed with this fact than some time ago, when I went to the Presidio, or army quarter of San Francisco. I went there with a very important message to the commandant of the post, Colonel Lundeen, from the Commanding General of the Coast, Lieutenant-General McArthur. Suddenly, while I was talking to the Colonel, the sunset gun was fired and the post flag began to flutter down. At once Colonel Lundeen stopped talking to me and faced about and stood at attention before those falling colors. Not one word would he speak until the ceremony of lowering the flag was ended.

The flag, the American flag, means so much. It is the protecting emblem of our national government. In time of battle it is the great rallying point for our soldiers. When the flag goes down, confusion reigns; hence one of the most dangerous, yet most honored posts in the army, is that of a color-guardman. So precious are the regimental colors that they are always surrounded by the best and the bravest soldiers when the regiment is in the field.

Now it is appropriate for the Gospel Army to have a flag like any other army. What kind of a banner is floating over this great army of the Church? There is only one flag, and that is the banner of the Cross. Whatever you do, wherever you go, there in the Gospel Army you can always find

THE BANNER OF THE CROSS.

As in other organized armies there are in the Gospel forces different regiments which are called denominations. There is the Episcopalian regiment, the Baptist regiment, the Presbyterian regiment, the Lutheran regiment, the Congregational regiment and the Methodist regiment. Every regiment has its own denominational flag carried alongside of the flag of the Cross. Is it not a glorious thought that as the years go on there is an increasing tendency to throw away our sectarian flags and lift higher and higher the blood-red flag of the atoning Cross of Jesus Christ?

But there is another fact about this Gospel Army that I wish to emphasize. It is an advancing army, a conquering army, an army upon the offensive. But it is also an army that is more and more becoming possessed of purer and holier ideals. The nearer the time approaches when the church, as a bride is to place her hand in that of the divine Bridegroom, the more carefully she arrays herself in the pure white robes that are to be her wedding garments. How different is man's idea of purity from the divine standard!

Dr. F. B. Meyer, the great English preacher, taught this truth in a simple way. He was making a pastoral call upon one of his church members, who was a washerwoman. She was one of the most devoted Christians, and one of the saintliest characters in his church. Like all good Christian washerwomen, she did her work as conscientiously at the tub as at the prayer meeting. Her clean linen was hanging upon the lines and lying around drying when the preacher called. "What beautiful clean linen you have!" said her pastor. "Yes," answered the woman, "If God wants me to be a washerwoman I must make the clothes white for his glory, just as I pray well for his glory." But during Dr. Meyer's visit, the snowflakes began to fall. When he came to the door to say "good-bye," the white mantle of winter was everywhere. But the snow was so white now that it made the linen clothes grimy in comparison. Then Dr. Meyer said, "Oh, madam, your clothes do not look as clean now as they did." "Of course not," replied the woman. "Remember, God's white is always purer than man's white." So the nearer the church comes to union with Christ, the nearer the time for the wedding nuptials, the more the church is being cleansed, and the higher and purer become its ideals. Then the more its wedding garments take upon themselves the purity and spotlessness of God's whiteness and God's love.

INFLUENCE ON THE WORLD.

To hear some pessimists talk, one would suppose that not only numerically, but also in purity and ideals, the church is rapidly deteriorating. I contend that not only is the church growing better, but it is influencing the whole world and elevating its ideals. Social conditions which would not now be tolerated for a day, were formerly ordinary commonplaces. We talk about the curse of "tainted money" in these days. We say that the American people are lost to all sense of honor and decency, when corporation funds are accepted by political parties. We say that the jugglery of stocks in Wall Street is an outrage. We say that the State legislatures are only puppets of monopolies, and that the municipal councils are owned, body and mind and soul by the railroad corporations. But stop!

A MAN THE MEASURE OF HIS OWN SUCCESS.

By W. A. McComb.

By success I do not mean those temporary and transient achievements of the hour, year, or even for a few years, but those permanent and abiding achievements that last for a life time and some for eternity.

The men who have been a success in this sense, whatever they may have had or lacked, have had character. It is well that the intellect shall be trained to the highest possible degree. Let men know all of the sciences, arts and literature possible. The more he knows, the better it is for him if he knows how to turn it to the best possible effect. His sensibilities should also be kept in sympathy with the needs of his brother men of the fallen race. Let him be able to "Weep with them that weep." His will, also should be brought into play in the choice of the right things of life. The will should be made to take an active place in rejecting the wrong as much as choosing the right.

The greatest teacher that ever lived expressed it thus: "Seek ye first the kingdom of God and His righteousness." We see the will is an important factor in thus forming the character of man, and the man is the measure of his own success.

An intelligent, sympathetic firm for the right, and equally firm against the wrong, regardless of personal consideration, will be a man who will succeed, and whose success will abide. He may not make a temporary success and the world may not regard him even in his own day as a success, but his work abide.

Such a life will be happy indeed if it can be characterized as has been Milton's, "By scholarship, by character, and by devout invocation."

To preach a great sermon, and keep on preaching great sermons, there must be life behind them. To make great speeches there must be a great character. To write great books there must be great lives. The man is the measure of his own work, and especially when that work abides the test of time. "He who would write heroic poems, must make his own life heroic poems." He who would preach great sermons, must make his own life great sermons. He who would achieve greatness in any line of work, must make his own life great. In order to build a great character one does not need constantly to be before the public eye nor engaged in what the world calls great undertakings. In the quiet walks of life there are ample opportunities to meet and conquer sin or to be conquered by sin. To conquer sin in the little things is to lay the foundation for a great character and live a great life and achieve a permanent success. The great men and women of the past as well as of the present are men and women of character. William J. Bryan has been defeated three times for the Presidency of the United States, yet he is the most popular man in the nation, and the principles for which he stands and is working will last. He is greater than any speech he has ever made.

H. F. Sproles, that great theologian and scholar, is greater than the greatest of his sermons.

John A. Broadus was greater than his greatest achievement. And so it is and will be with all. The man is the true measure of his own success. Then let us build character rather than aim at transitory achievements. To do this God is the source of inspiration. "By devout prayer to that eternal spirit who can enrich with all utterance and knowledge send out His seraphim with the hallowed fire of His altar to touch and purify the lips of whom He will." We can get the necessary strength for such a life. Such a life is possible only to those who will study, watch and pray. It is our business "To make life, not a living."

Our idea of a beautiful woman is one who looks attractive with her hair done up in kid curls—and she is scarce.

ABOUT ADVERTISING—NO. 6

If It Fits You Wear This Cap

By Herbert Kaufman

Advertising isn't a crucible with which lazy, bigoted and incapable merchants can turn incompetency into success—but one into which brains and tenacity and courage can be poured and changed into dollars. It is only a short cut across the fields—not a moving platform. You can't "get there" without "going some."

It's a game in which the worker—not the shirker—gets rich.

By its measurement every man stands for what he is and for what he does, not for what he was and what he did.

Every day in the advertising world is another day and has to be taken care of with the same energy as it's yesterday.

The quitter can't survive where the plugger has a ghost of a chance.

Advertising doesn't take the place of business talent or business management. It simply tells what the business is and how it is managed. The snob whose father created and who is content to live on what was handed to him can't stand up against the man who knows he must build for himself.

What makes you think that you are entitled to prosper as well as a competitor who works twice as hard for his prosperity?

Why should as many people come to your store as patronize a shop that makes an endeavor to get their trade and shows them that it is worth while to come to its doors?

Why should a newspaper send as many customers to you in half the time it took to fill an establishment which advertised twice as long and paid twice as much for its publicity?

This is the day when the best man wins—after he proves that he is the best man—when the best store wins, when it has shown that it is the best store—when the best goods win, after they've been demonstrated to be the best goods.

If you want the plum you can't get it by lying under the tree with your mouth open waiting for it to drop—too many other men are willing to climb out on the limb and risk their necks in their eagerness to get it away from you.

It is a man's game—this advertising—just hanging on and tugging and straining all the time to get and keep ahead. It is the finite expression of the law of competition which sits in blind-folded justice over the markets of the world.

THE CONTRACT LET

Street paving is an assured fact in Ada.

The contract was let Monday night for paving Twelfth street, between Rennie on the east and Stockton on the west.

The Metropolitan Engineering and Construction Company of Kansas City, were the successful bidders at $1.70 per square yard, which with trimming will amount to about $2.00 per yard.

The next lowest bidder was the Sharpe-Meyer Construction Company whose bid was $1.83 1-2.

The work is to be started upon notice by council and completed within ninety days. This notice will not be given until the city puts in the sewerage system on Twelfth street, provided for in the recent bond issue.

It is gratifying news, however, that a definite start has been made to pave the business streets of Ada.

The paving will be 3 1-2 inches of concrete composed of crushed stone or rock, cement and sand, with a top layer of cement 1-2 inches thick. This is said to make a most endurable paving.

Another good thing about it, is the fact that all the material is at our door and of the best quality. The Oklahoma Portland Cement Company's plant will supply the cement and that is a sufficient guarantee of the unexcelled quality.

The rock, stone and sand, are all convenient and in abundance within easy reach, so the expenditure for labor necessary to get the material for paving the streets of Ada is kept at home.

BITTER ATTACK ON PRESIDENT

Washington, Jan. 18.—A sensational and bitter attack on President Roosevelt was made in the house of representatives by Mr. Willett of New York. His remarks, which were delivered under the license of general debate on the pension appropriation bill, were cut short by a vote of the house that it would hear no more of them. The president was characterized as a "Gargoyles, tryant, pigmy descendant of Dutch tradespeople, Hay tedder, fountain of billingsgate, a jocular, imitation of a king, and a bogus hero." As it was, Mr. Willett had completed reading about three-fourths of his speech, when after repeated appeals to the chair by numerous republicans that he be called to order, he was compelled to take his seat. It was on less than $150 a year, who has been a resident of the state for seven years, and the Cordell bill covering the procedure in regard to wills, providing that a husband may not will more than two-thirds of his property away from his wife nor a wife from her husband.

Senator Cunningham caused the senate to take notice by declaring that he had been told by a member of the supreme court that all efforts to amend those statutes would only add to the complications now existing as many sections of law which had not been repealed or amended had been left out of that compilation, and that inasmuch as the general revision of the code has to be made under the constitution before the meeting of the next legislature any reference to the statutes of 1908 in amendatory bills would only complicate the work of the codifying commission.

PISTOL BATTLE ON A TRAIN

Fort Smith, Ark., Jan. 18.—Entering a car in an Iron Mountain passenger train at Cherokee Junction, six miles from this city, in which his brother, Grant Quinn sat handcuffed to Police Officer Burgess of this city who was taking him to Little Rock to turn him over to the commandant at Fort Logan H. Root as a deserter, Lee Quinn last night about midnight opened a fusillade with a pistol at Burgess. Burgess pulled his pistol and began firing at Quinn. Passengers assisted him, two of them also firing several shots and another finally knocking Quinn's gun upward so that one of the bullets went through the roof of the car. Burgess was not injured, but Irvine Brassfield of Mulberry, Ark., who was sitting just behind Burgess and his prisoner, received a fatal wound. He was shot twice, one bullet penetrating his lung and the other entering his leg. Brassfield was brought to this city and is being cared for at the Iron Mountain emergency hospital.

Quinn, after emptying his pistol, leaped from the train and has not been captured, although it is believed he was wounded. He boarded the train as it slowed down at Cherokee Junction, and on entering the smoking car where Burgess and his brother were, opened fire.

Grant Quinn, who was arrested here yesterday, was turned over to the officers at Fort Root today.

RETURNS A DEMENTED TRAMP

Hollis, Okla., Jan. 18.—In a horrible physical condition, apparently insane and unable to care for himself and having been given up for dead, Miles Edward, well known and respected, suddenly appeared as a tramp at the home of John Scott and asked for something to eat. Not until he had been seated at a table was he recognized, his appearance such as to absolutely change his identity.

No rational expression as to his whereabouts could be gained other than that he had slept in barns. He disappeared about a month ago, and all efforts to find him failing he was given up for dead, and his wife returned to her parents in Missouri. His feet were torn and bleeding, hair and beard long and tangled.

The strangest thing of all is that somehow he learned to speak Spanish, a language he knew nothing about before he disappeared. He will be cared for and probably taken to an asylum.

Bad Fire at Kiefer.

Tulsa, Okla., Jan. 18.—A fire which started from an unknown cause in the little oil town of Kiefer, 18 miles south of Tulsa, shortly after midnight last night, totally destroyed two large business blocks, gutted a third and consumed three stocks of goods, threatened the entire city for a while and paralyzed business for a time. The fire is evidently the work of an incendiary, and the fact that Kiefer has no fire department added to the horror of the disaster. The total loss is $12,000.

Favorable action was also taken on the Yeaker bill, providing for a pension of $100 per year for any blind person having an income of

LOOTED BANK AND LAUGHED

Enid, Okla., Jan. 18.—Laughing hilariously while they scraped together the bills and coin scattered by the force of their explosive three masked men looted the first state bank of Carrier, Ok., this morning securing $3,000 all in cash. They left one fifty-cent piece in the bank.

Two charges of nitro-glycerine were exploded. The safe was completely demolished. Portions of the steel vault were blown a great distance. One large mis-shapen chunk struck the postoffice a block away and crashed into the wood siding.

When the first shot was fired under the bank vault at 2 o'clock Carrier's 150 inhabitants awoke, and to the child, swarmed from their homes.

"It's the bank," some one shouted. And toward the bank the scantily clothed inhabitants converged. Then, suddenly, those in front halted. They wavered and scattered before the muzzle of several revolvers thrust from the bank windows and threats that came from behind the guns. The whole town was held at bay while the robbers worked at their leisure.

At 2:10 the second shot was fired. This wrecked the safe. People ran to shelter to escape the flying pieces of steel and wood as the bank vault was lifted almost bodily through the little building.

The yegmen took their time in plundering the dismantled bank. They whistled and conversed as they searched the ruins of the safe and floor of the building for money, which they dumped into a bag. When they left the bank they were apparently uproariously amused at the dark, silent houses. They walked together slowly and unconcernedly, disappearing into the night.

The sheriff left Enid this morning to gather a posse. It is believed that the men had horses secreted near Carrier.

ARRESTED; ROOM SEARCHED

Guthrie, Okla., Jan. 18.—Scott McReynolds of Brooklyn, N. Y., in the employ of Clarence J. Shearn of 149 Nassau street, New York, general counsel for William Randolph Hearst, who has been in Oklahoma for several months gathering data for use in the Mabel suit of Gov. C. N. Haskell against Hearst for $600,000, was arrested tonight upon a charge of conspiracy. A warrant had been issued in the County court upon affidavit of

Gov. Haskell, alleging that McReynolds had conspired with "John Doe" and others, offering a sum of money to commit acts defamatory of the complainant. There was also issued a search warrant upon application of the Governor, and McReynolds' apartments in the Ione Hotel were relieved of documents, chiefly consisting, it is said, of carbon copies of matter he had forwarded to the New York office. The papers were taken to Gov. Haskell's private office, but later McReynolds and his attorney, former Chief Justice Burford, appeared in court and an order was made returning them to the custody of the court. Gov. Haskell was represented by County Attorney Hepburn and O. T. Smith, law clerk in the executive office. McReynolds was released to remain in the custody of his attorney until the case is called for trial tomorrow.

Gov. Haskell issued a statement tonight in which he reviewed the charges set out in the complaint, adding that McReynolds in his research has been aided by one or two men from the East, by a certain person in Ohio, whom he does not name, and three or four persons in Oklahoma.

McReynolds made a statement tonight, that Gov. Haskell's purpose in causing his arrest and the seizure of his room was to obtain possession of data he had, to ascertain its importance and to learn from whom it was obtained.

The suit for use, in which McReynolds was seeking evidence, was filed by Gov. Haskell against Hearst in Omaha, Neb., during the national campaign, and was based upon publications made by the New Yorker in regard to Gov. Haskell's retirement as National Democratic treasurer, as well as his connection with the campaign. McReynolds is an ex-newspaper man, formerly working on the Times of El Paso, Tex.

the church the men will assemble in Garrison hall and from these two rooms prayers will be offered that God may not permit the sale of liquor to be legalized in Oklahoma.

At 8 o'clock, the prayer service will be adjourned and in the assembly room of the church the Rev. Dr. P. A. Baker, general superintendent of the anti-saloon league, who travels 60,000 miles each year in the cause of temperance, will make an address.

This will be preparatory to the annual state convention of the anti-saloon league, which will be held in Guthrie on Thursday. A union meeting is in progress there, but it will give way to the convention. Dr. Baker and Governor Haskell will address the convention.

Oklahoma City will send a big delegation to the meeting. Fifteen trustees are to be elected and plans for the year's work will be discussed.

Election of U. S. Senator.

Guthrie, Okla., Jan. 18.—Tomorrow the two houses of the Oklahoma legislature, in separate sessions, will elect a United States senator. He will, of course, be Senator Thomas P. Gore.

Wednesday at high noon will be held the joint session at which the formal election and announcement will take place. The voting tomorrow really does the electing, but Wednesday completes the formality. Lieutenant Governor Bellamy presides over the joint session Wednesday with Speaker Wilson occupying a chair of equal dignity and elevation.

Guthrie, Okla., Jan. 18.—Senator Thomas P. Gore arrived tonight to be present tomorrow at the balloting for United States senator.

MASSMEETING AND PRAYER

Oklahoma City, Jan. 18.—While members of Oklahoma's legislature are gathered in hotel lobbies and committee rooms Wednesday night to discuss action to be taken on bills on the following day, hundreds of Oklahoma City church going people will be on their knees in the White Temple Baptist church, praying that the divine hand may guide the actions of those who have been trusted by the people to spread upon the statute books such laws as will be for the health, the happiness and the prosperity of the whole people.

A great mass meeting will be held in White Temple Wednesday evening, under the auspices of the ministerial association, the law and order league and the anti-saloon league. Before the meeting proper begins, the women in attendance at the meeting will go to the ladies' parlor of

WE ARE FRIENDS.

Pontotoc county has right around thirty thousand inhabitants, of whom five thousand live in Ada. Practically, there is an unanimous, healthful enthusiasm throughout the county, away from Ada, in favor of the successful consummation of the great ambition of all the people living within the Ada city, that of securing through proper legislative enactment, a state normal.

Since careful scrutiny has been had of the organization of the legislature and the personnel of its leadership, and since, it is known that the state administration, especially its head, will on no account stack any chunks in the way of Ada's normal undertaking, there has been aroused among those few who were more or less dormant in their support of the state administration a spirit of confidence and appreciation toward the leading official state factors. And in reference to those citizens who have lately taken on positive confidence and changed their attitude, it should not be understood that such was brought about simply on account of the administration's non-partisan, if not favorable attitude toward the city of Ada, in the matter of the location of public building. Though, however, it might be true, that among these, the awakening in general support of the policy of the administration was produced in such salutary manner on account of the great relief afforded in finding out that Haskell really did not have it in for this city and county after all.

Notwithstanding, Ada's superior inducements, through geographical location, center of southeast population, railroad facilities, modern improvements, high altitude, pure climate and water and the inexhaustible possession of the finest building materials, it is recognized, that friendship counts and our friendship stands pledged.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

Washington, Jan. 18.—It appears that a new national issue has been developed in Washington during the past ten days. The republican leaders headed by Representative Burton, and Speaker Cannon, are opposing a large appropriation for the improvement of rivers and harbors this year. The democrats demand such a bill, and threaten if it is not passed, to carry the fight through both houses of congress and, if they lose, then to make the river and harbor improvements question an issue in the next congressional election, and on it to try to wrest the control of the house from the republicans. The republican policy is to drain the country's revenue for more battleships and a larger army. That of the democrats is to spend the country's money on the permanent improvement of internal facilities. Many republicans believe with the democrats on this question.

Inquiry into some of the methods of President Roosevelt by the house and senate have brought to light some startling facts. For instance, it has been found that a man named Dulaney, a negro, is being carried on the pay roll of the war department in the office of the auditor at a salary of $1600 per year, while in fact the man is President Roosevelt's private barber parlor, does nothing but shave the president and never reports at the auditing department at all. Another incidence is that of a man named Jackson, who is on the rolls of the war department at a salary of $900 per year never reports there, but is the private messenger of Mrs. Roosevelt. It is also stated that the social secretary of Mrs. Roosevelt is carried on the roll of the war department at $900 per year. These petty grafts have been shown up in the discussion in the house and senate during the past week.

W. Hayes Fuller, of McAlester, Senator Owen and Representative Carter have had several conferences with the secretary of the interior trying to draft a bill to provide for the immediate sale of the surface of the coal lands.

E. S. Adams, of Atoka, is in Washington and wants to be appointed revenue collector in case a separate district is made of Oklahoma. He is a Spanish war veteran and is now holding a job in Panama.

Congressman C. D. Carter, who was seriously ill for a week, has now recovered and is able to go about his duties again.

Bills have been introduced in the senate and the house to relieve the settlers of the big pasture in Southwestern Oklahoma, from the payment on their farms this year. The entire sum they will have to pay unless the payment is suspended is about a million dollars, affecting 3,000 families, and most of them have not the money to meet the payments. Senator Gore and Congressman Ferris are pushing the bill.

Congressman Davenport is busy with the attorney general and the secretary of the interior to prevent having a lot of useless suits brought against the allotment of the Indians of Ottawa county, under the pretext of clearing titles. Davenport wants each case investigated and no suits brought unless there is actually a cloud upon it.

The interstate commerce commission has rendered a decision which forces the Rock Island, Frisco and Santa Fe roads to reduce their rates on reefer cars from the railroads of Kansas and Missouri for Oklahoma points from sixteen to twenty-five per cent. The case was brought by the state against these roads.

TEXAS WINS ITS OIL CASE.

Washington, D. C. Jan. 18.—The State of Texas has triumphed over the Waters-Pierce Oil Company.

The supreme court today, in opinions in which all its members concur, has not only affirmed the judgment of ouster, together with the great penalty imposed, but has decreed that the property shall be surrendered to Robert J. Eckhardt, the State receiver, as a means of banishing the company from Texas. Thus, not only is the constitutionality of State's anti-trust laws affirmed, but the judgment of its courts is sustained.

Justice Day delivered the opinion. As it to make a completed victory more complete, the court has adjudged that the cost of the proceedings instituted by Bradley W. Palmer and H. Clay Pierce to keep the federal receiver, C. B. Dorchester, in control, after the circuit court of appeals at New Orleans had decided against him, shall be paid out of the proceeds of the company's profits in Texas.

There is no flaw in the victory.

UNIVERSITY TEACHERS WIN.

Contract Required Notice of Ninety Days.

Guthrie, Okla., Jan. 18.—That a professor of the state university is entitled to 90 days' notice or 90 days' pay on dismissal or failure to re-hire is the opinion of Attorney General West in a letter to the state board of regents of the state university today.

The attorney general was made the arbitrator between the board of regents and the teachers of the university in the case of V. L. Parrington, professor of English, who was re-appointed June 24, 1908, though notified June 9, 1908, that he had been appointed.

The ruling is based on a provision

BLIND SCHOOL AT MUSKOGEE

Guthrie, Ok., Jan. 18.—Superintendent Cameron today addressed a letter to Senator Russell of Muskogee county and Chairman Branson of the democratic steering committee, recommending the removal of the state school for the blind from Port Gibson to Muskogee.

This is the result of Muskogee's failure to secure one of the A. & M. schools or the normal school that is to be located in the eastern part of the state.

The school for the blind when fully reorganized in Muskogee will have 200 pupils.

Tablequah will in all probability get the normal school.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured.

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, inflammation can be taken out and deafness is the result, and unless this tube is restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars. Free. F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O.

ZEKE PUTNAM'S FUNERAL

This evening at 1:30, the funeral services of Zeke Putnam were held at the residence of W. E. Hall, brother-in-law of the deceased, conducted by Revs. Wilson and Barnhardt of the Methodist church.

The Odd Fellows then took charge of the remains, and conducted the last sad rites at Rosedale cemetery, in this city.

There were a large number of friends and acquaintances at the funeral services and burial.

The assassination of Marshal Zeke Putnam, of Allen, as reported in the News yesterday, contained some errors, as it was impossible to get correct information by phone.

Marshal Putnam was in a store at the time he was killed, and was standing by the counter eating a canned lunch.

As the bullets from the shotgun struck Marshal Putnam, he grabbed for his pistol, but the wounds were so instantaneously fatal, that he did not live long enough to pull his weapon, but fell over dead. Two shot entered his temple, one in the top of his head, one in his arm and two in his breast.

Sheriff Smith and Prosecuting Attorney Wimbush returned from Allen last night. They do not have anything to report for publication.

There was considerable suppressed excitement at Allen apparent as had been the case since the assassination.

Bloodhounds from Muskogee, McAlester and Vinita, were carried to Allen, but they could not get any definite trail of the assassin.

Deputy Sheriff Bob Nestor tracked two horses from the scene of the crime going south, and there may be some developments later from the information gained by the clues gathered.

JUDGE GALBRAITH HONORED

At the meeting of attorneys at Muskogee, representing the various people who have been sued by the government to quiet the titles to Indian lands when they have brought Judge C. A. Galbraith of Ada, was selected as one of those to present to the court the cases in the Choctaw and Chickasaw nations.

There has been an agreement reached between the government and defendants by which test cases, involving all the law points at issue, may be argued and submitted to the federal court at Muskogee, and whichever way a decision is made, an appeal will be taken to the U. S. supreme court, so as these disputed points can be finally and definitely settled and the lands freed of clouded titles.

To be selected as one of the attorneys in a case of such importance to present the matter to the court is a high honor, and one which Judge Galbraith is most worthy.

Miss Mollie Jernigan is again at her desk in the News office after a month's visit with relatives and friends at the old Kentucky home.

ADA ASPHALT IS THE BEST

The verdict of Fort Worth, Tex., contractors was to the effect that the Ada asphalt proved the best they had ever used, and this is confirmed by a competitive test recently made at Muskogee which gives additional evidence to this effect.

In conversation with one of the largest paving contractors in Muskogee, a News reporter was informed by him, that he had a test made of the different samples of asphalt gathered in Oklahoma, and he found the Ada asphalt the best, so had arranged to have 25,000 tons of it mined for him to use in his paving contracts in the state.

As further evidence that this contractor knows good material with which to do his paving work, he said the cement manufactured by the Oklahoma Portland Cement Company at Ada, was a high grade article, and that he had just received a statement from them to the amount of $3200 worth of cement.

Ada is rapidly forging to the front, and no one thing is doing more to place it there than its cement plant.

And now our asphalt is everywhere taking the highest rank. With such rich natural resources that are so generally used, the fame of Ada will spread wherever high grade paving and building materials, such as cement and asphalt, are used.

Miss Seales.

Miss Annie Seales, of Paris, Tex., most favorably remembered in Ada as one of the teachers in the public schools two years ago, delighted her friends with a little visit in Ada, while en route from her late residence in Oklahoma City, with her relative, Major Seales, to the home of her parents at Paris.

Miss Seales taught in the Oklahoma City schools last year until she resigned to accept the position of librarian in Northwestern State Normal.

A SERMON.

Next to the vastness of this army of the Church of God I am impressed with the banners which are fluttering over it. You know that what the military uniform is to the soldier as an individual the flag or banner is to the army as a whole. It is the sign by which the soldiers of one nation are distinguished from the soldiers of another nation. Because our own beloved American flag represents so much you always find it the most honored emblem in the camp or in the field. I was never more impressed with this fact than some time ago when I went to the Presidio or army quarter of San Francisco. I went there with a very important message to the commandant of the post, Colonel Lundeen, from the Commanding General of the Coast, Lieutenant-General McArthur. Suddenly while I was talking to the Colonel, the sunset gun was fired and the post flag began to flutter down. At once Colonel Lundeen stopped talking to me and faced about and stood at attention before those falling colors. Not one word would he speak until the ceremony of lowering the flag was ended.

The flag the American flag means so much. It is the protecting emblem of our national government. In time of battle it is the great rallying point for our soldiers. When the flag goes down confusion reigns; hence one of the most dangerous, yet most honored posts in the army is that of a color-guardman. So precious are the regimental colors that they are always surrounded by the best and the bravest soldiers when the regiment is in the field.

Now it is appropriate for the Gospel Army to have a flag like any other army. What kind of a banner is floating over this great army of the Church? There is only one flag, and that is the banner of the Cross. Whatever you do wherever you go there in the Gospel Army you can always find are in the Gospel forces different regiments which are called denominations. There is the Episcopalian regiment, the Baptist regiment, the Presbyterian regiment, the Lutheran regiment, the Congregational regiment and the Methodist regiment. Every regiment has its own denominational flag carried alongside of the flag of the Cross. Is it not a glorious thought that as the years go on there is an increasing tendency to throw away our sectarian flags and lift higher and higher the blood-red flag of the atoning Cross of Jesus Christ?

As in other organized armies there

But there is another fact about this Gospel Army that I wish to emphasize. It is an advancing army, a conquering army in arms upon the offensive. But it is also an army that is more and more becoming possessed of purer and holier ideals. The nearer the time approaches when the church, as a bride is to place her hand in that of the divine Bridegroom, the more carefully she arrays herself in the pure white robes that are to be her wedding garments. How different is man's idea of purity from the divine standard!

Dr. F. B. Meyer, the great English preacher, taught this truth in a simple way. He was making a pastoral call upon one of his church members, who was a washerwoman. She was one of the most devoted Christians, and one of the saintliest characters in his church. Like all good Christian washerwomen, she did her work as conscientiously as the tub as at the prayer meeting. Her clean linen was hanging upon the lines and lying around drying when the preacher called. "What beautiful clean linen you have!" said her pastor. "Yes," answered the woman, "If God wants me to be a washerwoman I must make the clothes white for his glory, just as I pray well for his glory." But during Dr. Meyer's visit the snowflakes began to fall. When he came to the door to say good-bye, the white mantle of winter was everywhere. But the snow was so white now that it made the linen clothes grimy in comparison. Then Dr. Meyer said: "Oh madam, your clothes do not look as clean now as they did." Of course not," replied the woman. "Remember, God's white is always purer than man's white." So the nearer the church comes to union with Christ, the nearer the time for the wedding nuptials, the more the church is being cleansed and the higher and purer become its ideals. Then the more its wedding garments take upon themselves the purity and spotlessness of God's whiteness and God's love.

INFLUENCE ON THE WORLD

To hear some pessimists talk, one would suppose that not only numerically, but also in purity and ideals, the church is rapidly deteriorating. I contend that not only is the church growing better but it is influencing the whole world and elevating its ideals. Social conditions which would not now be tolerated for a day, were formerly ordinary commonplace. We talk about the curse of tainted money. In these days we say that the American people are lost to all sense of honor and decency, when corporation funds are accepted by political parties. We say that the jugglery of stocks in Wall Street is an outrage. We say that the State legislatures are only puppets of monopolies, and that the municipal councils are owned, body and mind and soul by the railroad corporations. But stop!

A MAN THE MEASURE OF HIS OWN SUCCESS

By W. A. McComb

By success I do not mean those temporary and transient achievements of the hour, year or even for a few years, but those permanent and abiding achievements that last for a life time and some for eternity.

The men who have been a success in this sense whatever they may have had or lacked, have had character. It is well that the intellect shall be trained to the highest possible degree. Let men know all of the sciences, arts and literature possible. The more he knows, the better it is for him if he knows how to turn it to the best possible effect. His sensibilities should also be kept in sympathy with the needs of his brother men of the fallen race. Let him be able to weep with them that weep. His will, also should be brought into play in the choice of the right things of life. The will should be made to take an active place in rejecting the wrong as much as choosing the right.

The greatest teacher that ever lived expressed it thus: "Seek ye first the kingdom of God and His righteousness." We see the will is an important factor in thus forming the character of man, and the man is the measure of his own success.

An intelligent, sympathetic firm for the right, and equally firm against the wrong, regardless of personal consideration, will be a man who will succeed, and whose success will abide. He may not make a temporary success and the world may not regard him even in his own day as a success, but his work abides.

Such a life will be happy indeed if it can be characterized as has been Milton's. By scholarship by character and by devout invocation.

To preach a great sermon, and keep on preaching great sermons there must be life behind them. To make great speeches there must be a great character. To write great books there must be great lives. The man is the measure of his own work and especially when that work abides the test of time. "He who would write heroic poems must make his own life heroic poems." He who would preach great sermons must make his own life great sermons. He who would achieve greatness in any line of work must make his own life great. In order to build a great character one does not need constantly to be before the public eye nor engaged in what the world calls great undertakings. In the quiet walks of life there are ample opportunities to meet and conquer sin or to be conquered by sin. To conquer sin in the little things is to lay the foundation for a great character and live a great life and achieve a permanent success. The great men and women of the past as well as of the present are men and women of character. William J. Bryan has been defeated three times for the Presidency of the United States, yet he is the most popular man in the nation, and the principles for which he stands and is working will last. He is greater than any speech he has ever made.

H. F. Sproule, that great theologian and scholar, is greater than the greatest of his sermons. John A. Broadus was greater than his greatest achievement. And so it is and will be with all. The man is the true measure of his own success. Then let us build character rather than aim at transitory achievements. For do this God is the source of inspiration. By devout prayer to that eternal spirit who can enrich with all utterance and knowledge send out His seraphim with the hallowed fire of His altar to touch and purify the lips of whom He will. We can get the necessary strength for such a life. Such a life is possible only to those who will study, watch and pray. It is our business. To make life, not a living!

Our idea of a beautiful woman is one who looks attractive with her hair done up in kid curls—and she is scarce.

ABOUT ADVERTISING—NO 6

If It Fits You Wear This Cap

By Herbert Kaufman

Advertising isn't a crucible with which lazy, bigoted and incapable merchants can turn incompetency into success—but one into which brains and tenacity and courage can be poured and changed into dollars. It is only a short cut across the fields—not a moving platform. You can't "get there" without "going some."

It's a game in which the worker—not the shirker—gets rich.

By its measurement every man stands for what he is and for what he does, not for what he was and what he did.

Every day in the advertising world is another day and has to be taken care of with the same energy as it's yesterday.

The quitter can't survive where the plugger has a ghost of a chance.

Advertising doesn't take the place of business talent or business management. It simply tells what the business is and how it is managed. The snob whose father created and who is content to live on what was handed to him can't stand up against the man who knows he must build for himself.

What makes you think that you are entitled to prosper as well as a competitor who works twice as hard for his prosperity?

Why should as many people come to your store as patronize a shop that makes an endeavor to get their trade and shows them that it is worth while to come to its doors?

Why should a newspaper send as many customers to you in half the time it took to fill an establishment which advertised twice as long and paid twice as much for its publicity?

This is the day when the best man wins—after he proves that he is the best man—when the best store wins, when it has shown that it is the best store—when the best goods win, after they've been demonstrated to be the best goods.

If you want the plum you can't get it by lying under the tree with your mouth open waiting for it to drop—too many other men are willing to climb out on the limb and risk their necks in their eagerness to get it away from you.

It is a man's game—this advertising—just hanging on and tugging and straining all the time to get and keep ahead. It is the finite expression of the law of competition which sits in blind-folded justice over the markets of the world.

ACCIDENTALLY SHOT AND DIES

Harrah, Okla., Jan. 18.—The funeral of Charles Scott, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Scott, who recently moved from here to Holdenville, was held here Saturday. The young man was accidentally shot and killed at Mutual, Okla. The boy was employed by a farmer and in the house at the time of the accident. A neighbor came to borrow a shotgun. As the weapon was handed over, it was accidentally discharged, the bullet striking young Scott in the body as he was sitting in the house. He died immediately.

Tax Examiners at Work.
Guthrie, Okla., Jan. 18.—State Examiner Taylor today announced the names of 20 men who will investigate tax levies in the state at the suggestion of Gov. Haskell. The work was begun today all over the state. It will be completed, it is expected, within 30 days. The agents will receive $150 for the month. From one to four counties were assigned each.

THE CONTRACT LET

Street paving is an assured fact in Ada. The contract was let Monday night for paving Twelfth street, between Renne on the east and Stockton on the west. The Metropolitan Engineering and Construction Company of Kansas City, were the successful bidders at $1.70 per square yard, which with trimming will amount to about $2.00 per yard. The next lowest bidder was the Sharpe-Meyer Construction Company whose bid was $1.33 1-2. The work is to be started upon notice by council and completed within ninety days. This notice will not be given until the city puts in the sewerage system on Twelfth street, provided for in the recent bond issue.

It is gratifying news, however, that a definite start has been made to pave the business streets of Ada. The paving will be 5 1-2 inches of concrete composed of crushed stone or rock, cement and sand, with a top layer of cement 1 1-2 inches thick. This is said to make a most durable paving. Another good thing about it, is the fact that all the material is at our door and of the best quality. The Oklahoma Portland Cement Company's plant will supply the cement and that is a sufficient guarantee of the unexcelled quality. The rock, stone and sand, are all convenient and in abundance within easy reach, so the expenditure for labor necessary to get the material for paving the streets of Ada is kept at home.

BITTER ATTACK ON PRESIDENT

Washington, Jan. 18.—A sensational and bitter attack on President Roosevelt was made in the house of representatives by Mr. Willett of New York. His remarks, which were delivered under the license of general debate on the pension appropriation bill, were cut short by a vote of the house that it would hear no more of them. The president was characterized as a "Gargoyle, tyrant, pigmy descendant of Dutch tradespeople, Hay tedder, fountain of billingsgate, a jocular liar, imitation of a king, and a bogus hero." As it was, Mr. Willett had completed reading about three-fourths of his speech, when after repeated appeals to the chair by numerous republicans that he be called to order, he was compelled to take his seat. It was on a motion by Mr. Candler of Mississippi that the New Yorker be allowed to proceed "in order" that the house voted him off the floor, 78 to 126. Mr. Willett remarked on the floor that the action of the body "put an end to free speech."

LEGISLATIVE PROCEEDINGS

Guthrie, Okla., Jan. 18.—The senate in committee of the whole this afternoon recommended for adoption Senator Franklin's child labor bill, which prohibits the employment of children under 14 years of age in any factory, workshop, theater, bowling alley, pool hall, steam laundry or in any occupation injurious to life or limb, and throws stringent regulations about their employment in any occupation. Favorable action was also taken on the Keifer bill, providing for a pension of $100 per year for any blind person having an income of less than $150 a year, who has been a resident of the state for seven years, and the Cordell bill covering the procedure in regard to wills, providing that a husband may not will more than two-thirds of his property away from his wife nor a wife from her husband. Senator Cunningham caused the senate to take notice by declaring that he had been told by a member of the supreme court that all efforts to amend those statutes would only add to the complications now existing as many sections of law which had not been repealed, or amended had been left out of that compilation, and that inasmuch as the general revision of the code has to be made under the constitution before the meeting of the next legislature any reference to the statutes of 1908 in amendatory bills would only complicate the work of the codifying commission.

PISTOL BATTLE ON A TRAIN

Fort Smith, Ark., Jan. 18.—Entering a car in an Iron Mountain passenger train at Cherokee Junction, six miles from this city, in which his brother, Grant Quinn sat handcuffed to Police Officer Burgess of this city who was taking him to Little Rock to turn him over to the commandant at Fort Logan H. Root as a deserter, Lee Quinn last night about midnight opened a fusillade with a pistol at Burgess. Burgess pulled his pistol and began firing at Quinn. Passengers assisted him, two of them also firing several shots and another finally knocking Quinn's gun upward so that one of the bullets went through the roof of the car. Burgess was not injured, but Irvine Brassfield of Mulberry, Ark., who was sitting just behind Burgess and his prisoner, received a fatal wound. He was shot twice, one bullet penetrating his lung and the other entering his leg. Brassfield was brought to this city and is being cared for at the Iron Mountain emergency hospital.

Quinn, after emptying his pistol, leaped from the train and has not been captured, although it is believed he was wounded. He boarded the train as it slowed down at Cherokee Junction, and on entering the smoking car where Burgess and his brother were, opened fire. Grant Quinn, who was arrested here yesterday, was turned over to the officers at Fort Root today.

RETURNS A DEMENTED TRAMP

Hollis, Okla., Jan. 18.—In a horrible physical condition, apparently insane and unable to care for himself and having been given up for dead, Miles Edward, well known and respected, suddenly appeared as a tramp at the home of John Scott and asked for something to eat. Not until he had been seated at a table was he recognized, his appearance such as to absolutely change his identity. No rational expression as to his whereabouts could be gained other than that he had slept in barns. He disappeared about a month ago, and all efforts to find him failing he was given up for dead, and his wife returned to her parents in Missouri. His feet were torn and bleeding, hair and beard long and tangled. The strangest thing of all is that somehow he learned to speak Spanish, a language he knew nothing about before he disappeared. He will be cared for and probably taken to an asylum.

Bad Fire at Keifer.
Tulsa, Okla., Jan. 18.—A fire which started from an unknown cause in the little oil town of Keifer, 18 miles south of Tulsa, shortly after midnight last night, totally destroyed two large business blocks, gutted a third and consumed three stocks of goods, threatened the entire city for a while and paralyzed business for a time. The fire is evidently the work of an incendiary, and the fact that Keifer has no fire department added to the horror of the disaster. The total loss is $12,000.

LOOTED BANK AND LAUGHED

Enid, Okla., Jan. 18.—Laughing hilariously while they scraped together the bills and coin scattered by the force of their explosive three masked men looted the first state bank of Carrier, Ok., this morning securing $3,000 all in cash. They left one fifty-cent piece in the bank. Two charges of nitro-glycerine were exploded. The safe was completely demolished. Portions of the steel vault were blown a great distance. One large mis-shapen chunk struck the postoffice a block away and crashed into the wood siding. When the first shot was fired under the bank vault at 2 o'clock Carrier's 150 inhabitants awoke, and to the child, swarmed from their homes. "It's the bank," some one shouted. And toward the bank the scantily clothed inhabitants converged. Then, suddenly, those in front halted. They waved and scattered before the muzzle of several revolvers thrust from the bank windows and threats that came from behind the guns. The whole town was held at bay while the robbers worked at their leisure. At 2:10 the second shot was fired. This wrecked the safe. People ran to shelter to escape the flying pieces of steel and wood as the bank vault was lifted almost bodily through the little building. The yegmen took their time in plundering the dismantled bank. They whistled and conversed as they searched the ruins of the safe and floor of the building for money, which they dumped into a bag. When they left the bank they were apparently uproariously amused at the dark, silent houses. They walked together slowly and unconcernedly, disappearing into the night. The sheriff left Enid this morning to gather a posse. It is believed that the men had horses secreted near Carrier.

ARRESTED; ROOM SEARCHED

Guthrie, Okla., Jan. 18.—Scott McReynolds of Brooklyn, N. Y., in the employ of Clarence J. Shearn of 149 Nassau street, New York, general counsel for William Randolph Hearst, who has been in Oklahoma for several months gathering data for use in the libel suit of Gov. C. N. Haskell against Hearst for $500,000, was arrested tonight upon a charge of conspiracy. A warrant had been issued in the County court upon affidavit of

Gov. Haskell, alleging that McReynolds had conspired with "John Doe" and others, offering a sum of money to commit acts defamatory of the complainant. There was also issued a search warrant upon application of the Governor, and McReynolds' apartments in the Lone Hotel were relieved of documents, chiefly consisting, it is said, of carbon copies of matter he had forwarded to the New York office. The papers were taken to Gov. Haskell's private office, but later McReynolds and his attorney, former Chief Justice Burford, appeared in court and an order was made returning them to the custody of the court. Gov. Haskell was represented by County Attorney Heyburn and O. T. Smith, law clerk in the executive office. McReynolds was released to remain in the custody of his attorney until the case is called for trial tomorrow.

Gov. Haskell issued a statement tonight in which he reviewed the charges set out in the complaint, adding that McReynolds in his research has been aided by one or two men from the East, by a certain person in Ohio, whom he does not name, and three or four persons in Oklahoma. McReynolds made a statement tonight, that Gov. Haskell's purpose in causing his arrest and the seizure of his room was to obtain possession of data he had, to ascertain its importance and to learn from whom it was obtained. The suit for use, in which McReynolds was seeking evidence, was filed by Gov. Haskell against Hearst in Omaha, Neb., during the national campaign, and was based upon publications made by the New Yorker in regard to Gov. Haskell's retirement as National Democratic treasurer, as well as his connection with the campaign. McReynolds is an ex-newspaper man, formerly working on the Times of El Paso, Tex.

MASSMEETING AND PRAYER

Oklahoma City, Jan. 18.—While members of Oklahoma's legislature are gathered in hotel lobbies and committee rooms Wednesday night to discuss action to be taken on bills on the following day, hundreds of Oklahoma City church going people will be on their knees in the White Temple Baptist church, praying that the divine hand may guide the actions of those who have been trusted by the people to spread upon the statute books such laws as will be for the health, the happiness and the prosperity of the whole people. A great mass meeting will be held in White Temple Wednesday evening, under the auspices of the ministerial association, the law and order league and the anti-saloon league. Before the meeting proper begins, the women of the churches at the meeting will go to the ladies' parlor of the church the men will assemble in Garrison hall and from these two rooms prayers will be offered that God may not permit the sale of liquor to be legalized in Oklahoma. At 8 o'clock, the prayer service will be adjourned and in the assembly room of the church the Rev. Dr. P. A. Baker, general superintendent of the anti-saloon league, who travels 60,000 miles each year in the cause of temperance, will make an address. This will be preparatory to the annual state convention of the anti-saloon league, which will be held in Guthrie on Thursday. A union meeting is in progress there, but it will give way to the convention. Dr. Baker and Governor Haskell will address the convention. Oklahoma City will send a big delegation to the meeting. Fifteen trustees are to be elected and plans for the year's work will be discussed.

Election of U. S. Senator.

Guthrie, Okla., Jan. 18.—Tomorrow the two houses of the Oklahoma legislature, in separate sessions, will elect a United States senator. He will, of course, be Senator Thomas P. Gore. Wednesday at high noon will be held the joint session at which the formal election and announcement will take place. The voting tomorrow really does the electing, but Wednesday completes the formality. Lieutenant Governor Bellamy presides over the joint session Wednesday with Speaker Wilson occupying a chair of equal dignity and elevation. Guthrie, Okla., Jan. 18.—Senator Thomas P. Gore arrived tonight to be present tomorrow at the balloting for United States senator.

WE ARE FRIENDS.

Pontotoc county has right around thirty thousand inhabitants of whom five thousand live in Ada. Practically there is a continuous healthful enthusiasm throughout the county away from Ada in favor of the successful consummation of the great ambition of all the people living within the Ada city that of securing through proper legislative enactment a state normal.

Since a great scrutiny has been had of the organization of the legislature and the personnel of its leadership and since it is known that the state administration especially its head will on no account stick any chunks in the way of Ada's normal undertaking there has been aroused among those few who were more or less dormant in their support of the state administration a spirit of confidence and appreciation toward the leading official state factors. And in reference to those citizens who have hitherto taken on positive confidence and changed their attitude it should not be understood that such was brought about simply on account of the administration's non-partisan and not favorable attitude toward the city of Ada in the matter of the location of public buildings. Though however it might be true that among these the awakening in general support of the policy of the administration was produced in such salutary manner on account of the great relief afforded in finding out that Haskill's bill did not have a chance for this city and county after all.

Notwithstanding Ada's superior inducement through geographical location center of southeast population railroad facilities modern improvements high altitude pure climate and water and the inexhaustible possession of the finest building materials it is recognized that friendship counts and our friendship stands pledged.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

Washington Jan 18.—It appears that a new national issue has been developed in Washington during the past ten days. The republican leaders headed by Representative Burton and Speaker Cannon are opposing a large appropriation for the improvement of rivers and harbors this year. The democrats demand such a bill and threaten it if it is not passed to carry the fight through both houses of congress and if they lose then to make the river and harbor improvements question an issue in the next congressional election and on it to try to wrest the control of the house from the republicans. The republican policy is to drain the country's revenue for more battleships and a larger navy. That of the democrats is to spend the country's money on the permanent improvement of internal facilities. Many republicans believe with the democrats on this question.

Inquiry into some of the method of President Roosevelt in the house and senate have brought to light some startling facts for instance it has been found that a mail named Dulany's memo is one carried on the payroll of the war department in the office of the aid to it. A salary of $1800 per year while in fact the man is President Roosevelt's private letter carrier. Does nothing but shave the president and never reports at the auditing department at all. Another instance is that of a man named Jackson who is on the rolls of the war department at a salary of $300 per year never reports there. It is the private messenger of Mrs. Roosevelt. It is also stated that the social secretary of Mrs. Roosevelt is carried on the roll of the war department at $300 per year. These petty grafts have been shown up in the discussion in the house and senate during the past week.

W. Hayes Fuller of McAlester Senator Owen and Representative Carter have had several conferences with the secretary of the interior trying to draft a bill to provide for the immediate sale of the surface of the coal lands.

E. S. Adams of Atoka is in Washington and wants to be appointed revenue collector in case a separate district is made of Oklahoma. He is a Spanish war veteran and is now holding a job in Panama.

Congressman C. D. Carter who was seriously ill for a week has now recovered and is able to go about his duties again.

Bills have been introduced in the senate and the house to relieve the settlers of the big pasture in Southwestern Oklahoma from the payment on their farms this year. The entire sum they will have to pay unless the payment is suspended is about a million dollars affecting 8000 families and most of them have not the money to meet the payments. Senator Gore and Congressman Ferris are pushing the bill.

Congressman Davenport is busy with the attorney general and the secretary of the interior to prevent having a lot of useless suits brought against the allotment of the Indians of Ottawa county under the pretext of clearing titles. Davenport wants each case investigated and no suits brought unless there is actually a cloud upon it.

The interstate commerce commission has rendered a decision which forces the Rock Island Frisco and Santa Fe to reduce their rates on freight of oil on the lines of Kansas. The rate for Oklahoma points from six cents to twenty five percent. The case was brought by the state against these roads.

TEXAS WINS ITS OIL CASE

Washington D. C. Jan 18.—The State of Texas has triumphed over the Waters Pierce Oil Company.

The supreme court today in opinions in which all its members concur has not only affirmed the judgment of the lower court but has decreed that the property shall be surrendered to Robert J. Eckhardt the State receiver as a means of banishing the company from Texas. Thus not only is the constitutionality of Texas' anti-trust laws affirmed but the judgment of its courts is sustained.

Justice Day delivered the opinion. As it is to make a completed victory more complete the court has added that the cost of the proceedings instituted by Bradley W. Palmer and H. Clay Pierce to keep the Waters Pierce Oil Company in control of the oil in the state of Texas shall be paid by the company. The court also ruled that the company shall be removed from the state of Texas.

That is no blow in the victory.

UNIVERSITY TEACHERS WIN.

Contract Required Notice of Ninety Days.

Guthrie Okla Jan 18.—That a professor of the state university is entitled to 90 days notice or 90 days pay on dismissal or failure to re-hire is the opinion of Attorney General West in a letter to the state board of regents of the state university today.

The attorney general was made the arbitrator between the board of regents and the teachers of the university in the case of V. L. Parrington professor of English who was re-appointed June 24, 1908, though notified June 9, 1908, that he had been appointed.

The ruling is based on a provision

BLIND SCHOOL AT MUSKOGEE

Guthrie Ok Jan 18.—Superintendent Cameron today addressed a letter to Senator Russell of Muskogee county and Chairman Brinson of the democratic steering committee recommending the removal of the state school for the blind from Fort Gibson to Muskogee.

This is the result of Muskogee's failure to secure one of the A. & M. schools of the normal school that is to be located in the eastern part of the state.

The school for the blind when fully reorganized in Muskogee will have 200 pupils.

Tablet will in all probability get the normal school.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured by local applications as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing and when it is entirely closed, inflammation can be taken out and deafness is the result and unless the tube is restored to its normal condition hearing will be destroyed forever. Nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by Catarrh) that cannot be cured by Halls Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars free. F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O.

ZEKE PUTNAM'S FUNERAL

This evening at 1:30, the funeral services of Zeke Putnam were held at the residence of W. E. Hall, brother-in-law of the deceased, conducted by Revs. Wilson and Barnhardt of the Methodist church. The Odd Fellows then took charge of the remains, and conducted the last sad rites at Rosedale cemetery, in this city.

There were a large number of friends and acquaintances at the funeral services and burial.

The assassination of Marshal Zeke Putnam, of Allen, as reported in the News yesterday, contained some errors, as it was impossible to get correct information by phone.

Marshal Putnam was in a store at the time he was killed, and was standing by a man who was sitting down by the counter eating a canned lunch.

As the bullets from the shotgun struck Marshal Putnam, he grabbed for his pistol, but the wounds were so instantaneously fatal, that he did not live long enough to pull his weapon, but fell over dead. Two shot entered his temple, one in the top of his head, one in his arm and two in his breast.

Sheriff Smith and Prosecuting Attorney Wimbush returned from Allen last night. They do not have anything to report for publication.

There was considerable suppressed excitement at Allen apparent as had been the case since the assassination.

Bloodhounds from Muskogee, McAlester and Vinita, were carried to Allen, but they could not get any definite trail of the assassin.

Deputy Sheriff Bob Nestor tracked two horses from the scene of the crime, going south, and there may be some developments later from the information gained by the clues gathered.

JUDGE GALBRAITH HONORED

At the meeting of attorneys at Muskogee, representing the various people who have been sued by the government to quiet the titles to Indian lands which they have brought, Judge C. A. Galbraith of Ada, was selected as one of those to present to the court the cases in the Choctaw and Chickasaw nations.

There has been an agreement reached between the government and defendants by which test cases, involving all the law points at issue, may be argued and submitted to the federal court at Muskogee, and whichever way a decision is made, an appeal will be taken to the U. S. supreme court, so as these disputed points can be finally and definitely settled and the lands freed of clouded titles.

To be selected as one of the attorneys in a case of such importance to present the matter to the court, is a high honor, and one which Judge Galbraith is most worthy.

Miss Mollie Jernigan is again at her desk in the News office after a month's visit with relatives and friends at the old Kentucky home.

ADA ASPHALT IS THE BEST

The verdict of Fort Worth, Tex., contractors was to the effect that the Ada asphalt proved the best they had ever used, and this is confirmed by a competitive test recently made at Muskogee which gives additional evidence to this effect.

In conversation with one of the largest paving contractors in Muskogee, a News reporter was informed by him, that he had a test made of the different samples of asphalt gathered in Oklahoma, and he found the Ada asphalt the best, so had arranged to have 25,000 tons of it mined for him to use in his paving contracts in the state.

As further evidence that this contractor knows good material with which to do his paving work, he said the cement manufactured by the Oklahoma Portland Cement Company at Ada, was a high grade article, and that he had just received a statement from them to the amount of $3200 worth of cement.

Ada is rapidly forging to the front, and no one thing is doing more to place it there than its cement plant.

And now our asphalt is everywhere taking the highest rank. With such rich natural resources that are so generally used, the fame of Ada will spread wherever high grade paving and building materials, such as cement and asphalt, are used.

Miss Seales.

Miss Annie Seales, of Paris, Tex., most favorably remembered in Ada as one of the teachers in the public schools two years ago, delighted her friends with a little visit in Ada, while en route from her late residence in Oklahoma City, with her relative, Major Seales, to the home of her parents at Paris.

Miss Seales taught in the Oklahoma City schools last year until she resigned to accept the position of librarian in Northwestern State Normal.

CHAPMAN

The Shoe Man

East Main Street, Ada, Okla.

Next to the vastness of this army of the Church of God I am impressed with the banners which are fluttering over it. You know that the military uniform is to the soldier as an individual the flag or banner is to the army as a whole. It is the sign by which the soldiers of one nation are distinguished from the soldiers of another nation. Because our own beloved American flag represents so much you always find it the most honored emblem in the camp or the field. I was never more impressed with this fact than some time ago when I went to the Piedra or army quarter of San Francisco. I went there with a very important message to the commandant of the post, Colonel Lundeen, from the Commanding General of the Coast, Lieutenant-General McArthur. Suddenly while I was talking to the Colonel, the sunset gun was fired and the post flag began to flutter down. At once Colonel Lundeen stopped talking to me and faced about and stood at attention before those falling colors. Not one word would he speak until the ceremony of lowering the flag was ended.

The flag the American flag means so much. It is the protecting emblem of our national government. In time of battle it is the great rallying point for our soldiers. When the flag goes down confusion reigns; hence one of the most dangerous, yet most honored posts in the army is that of a color-guardman. So precious are the regimental colors that they are always surrounded by the best and the bravest soldiers when the regiment is in the field.

Now it is appropriate for the Gospel Army to have a flag like any other army. What kind of a banner is floating over this great army of the Church? There is only one flag, and that is the banner of the Cross. Whatever you do wherever you go there in the Gospel Army you can always find are in the Gospel force different regiments which are called denominations. There is the Episcopal regiment, the Baptist regiment, the Presbyterian regiment, the Lutheran regiment, the Congregational regiment and the Methodist regiment. Every regiment has its own denominational flag carried alongside of the flag of the Cross. Is it not a glorious thought that as the years go on there is an increasing tendency to throw away our sectarian flags and lift higher and higher the blood-red flag of the atoning Cross of Jesus Christ?

But there is another fact about this Gospel Army that I wish to emphasize. It is an advancing army, a conquering army in arms upon the offensive. But it is also an army that is more and more becoming possessed of purer and holier ideals. The nearer the time approaches when the church, as a bride is to place her hand in that of the divine Bridegroom, the more carefully she arrays herself in the pure white robes that are to be her wedding garments. How different is man's idea of purity from the divine standard!

Dr. F. B. Meyer, the great English preacher, taught this truth in a simple way. He was making a pastoral call upon one of his church members, who was a washerwoman. She was one of the most devoted Christians, and one of the saintliest characters in his church. Like all good Christian washerwomen, she did her work as conscientiously at the tub as at the prayer meeting. Her clean linen was hanging upon the lines and lying around drying when the preacher called. "What beautiful clean linen you have," said her pastor. "Yes," answered the woman, "If God wants me to be a washerwoman I must make the clothes white for his glory, just as I pray well for his glory."

But during Dr. Meyer's visit the snowflakes began to fall. When he came to the door to say good-bye, the white mantle of winter was everywhere. But the snow was so white now that it made the linen clothes gray in comparison. Then Dr. Meyer said, "Oh madam, your clothes do

Of course not," replied the woman. "Remember, God's white is always purer than man's white." So the nearer the church comes to union with Christ, the nearer the time for the wedding nuptials, the more the church is being cleansed and the higher and purer become its ideals. Then the more its wedding garments take upon themselves the purity and spotlessness of God's whiteness and God loves.

To hear some pessimists talk, one would suppose that not only numerically, but also in purity and ideals, the church is rapidly deteriorating. I contend that not only is the church growing better but it is influencing the whole world and elevating its ideals. Social conditions which would not now be tolerated for a day, were formerly ordinary commonplace. We talk about the curse of tainted money. In these days we say that the American people are lost to all sense of honor and decency, when corporation funds are accepted by political parties. We say that the jugglery of stocks in Wall Street is an outrage. We say that the State legislatures are only puppets of monopolies, and that the municipal councils are owned, body and mind and soul by the railroad corporations. But stop!

A MAN THE MEASURE OF HIS OWN SUCCESS

By W. A. McComb

By success I do not mean those temporary and transient achievements of the hour, year or even for a few years, but those permanent and abiding achievements that last for a life time and some for eternity.

The men who have been a success in this sense whatever they may have had or lacked, have had character. It is well that the intellect shall be trained to the highest possible degree. Let men know all of the sciences, arts and literature possible. The more he knows, the better it is for him. If he knows how to turn it to the best possible effect. His sensibilities should also be kept in sympathy with the needs of his brother men of the fallen race. Let him be able to weep with them that weep. His will, also, should be brought into play in the choice of the right things of life. The will should be made to take an active place in rejecting the wrong as much as choosing the right.

The greatest teacher that ever lived expressed it thus: "Seek ye first the kingdom of God and His righteousness." We see the will is an important factor in thus forming the character of man, and the man is the measure of his own success.

An intelligent, sympathetic firm for the right, and equally firm against the wrong, regardless of personal consideration, will be a man who will succeed, and whose success will abide. He may not make a temporary success and the world may not regard him even in his own day as a success, but his work abide.

Such a life will be happy indeed if it can be characterized as has been Milton's. By scholarship by character and by devout invocation.

To preach a great sermon, and keep on preaching great sermons, there must be life behind them. To make great speeches there must be a great character. To write great books there must be great lives. The man is the measure of his own work and especially when that work abides the test of time. "He who would write heroic poems must make his own life heroic poems." He who would preach great sermons, must make his own life great sermons. He who would achieve greatness in any line of work, must make his own life great. In order to build a great character one does not need constantly to be before the public eye nor engaged in what the world calls great undertakings. In the quiet walks of life there are ample opportunities to meet and conquer sin or to be conquered by sin. To conquer sin in the little things is to lay the foundation for a great character and live a great life and achieve a permanent success. The great men and women of the past as well as of the present are men and women of character. William J. Bryan has been defeated three times for the Presidency of the United States, yet he is the most popular man in the nation, and the principles for which he stands and is working will last. He is greater than any speech he has ever made.

H. F. Sproles, that great theologian and scholar, is greater than the greatest of his sermons.

John A. Broadus was greater than his greatest achievement. And so it is and will be with all. The man is the true measure of his own success. Then let us build character rather than aim at transitory achievements. To do this God is the source of inspiration. By devout prayer to that eternal spirit who can enrich with all utterance and knowledge send out His seraphim with the hallowed fire of His altar to touch and purify the lips of whom He will. We can get the necessary strength for such a life. Such a life is possible only to those who will study watch and pray. It is our business "To make life, not a living."

Our idea of a beautiful woman is one who looks attractive with her hair done up in kid curlers—and she is scarce.

ABOUT ADVERTISING—NO 6

If It Fits You Wear This Cap

By Herbert Kaufman

Advertising isn't a crucible with which lazy, bigoted and incapable merchants can turn incompetency into success—but one into which brains and tenacity and courage can be poured and changed into dollars. It is only a short cut across the fields—not a moving platform. You can't "get there" without "going some."

It's a game in which the worker—not the shirker—gets rich.

By its measurement every man stands for what he is and for what he does, not for what he was and what he did.

Every day in the advertising world is another day and has to be taken care of with the same energy as it's yesterday.

The quitter can't survive where the plugger has a ghost of a chance.

Advertising doesn't take the place of business talent or business management. It simply tells what the business is and how it is managed. The snob whose father created and who is content to live on what was handed to him can't stand up against the man who knows he must build for himself.

What makes you think that you are entitled to prosper as well as a competitor who works twice as hard for his prosperity?

Why should as many people come to your store as patronize a shop that makes an endeavor to get their trade and shows them that it is worth while to come to its doors?

Why should a newspaper send as many customers to you in half the time it took to fill an establishment which advertised twice as long and paid twice as much for its publicity?

This is the day when the best man wins—after he proves that he is the best man—when the best store wins, when it has shown that it is the best store—when the best goods win, after they've been demonstrated to be the best goods.

If you want the plum you can't get it by lying under the tree with your mouth open waiting for it to drop—too many other men are willing to climb out on the limb and risk their necks in their eagerness to get it away from you.

It is a man's game—this advertising—just hanging on and tugging and straining all the time to get and keep ahead. It is the finite expression of the law of competition which sits in blind-folded justice over the markets of the world.
